Craig Jun Li

If you were there, you'd know

December 25, 2025 – January 31, 2026

Emmelines is pleased to present Craig Jun Li's If you were there, you'd know.

The window displays a tableau of rephotographed negatives from Wham! in China: Foreign Skies, the second cut made of the film documenting the musical group's 1985 tour. A painting retouched from an old family photo may also be viewed in the office, and a takeaway text is available at the desk.

These works were developed in the course of Li's ongoing conversation and collaboration with Los Angeles-based artist Glen Fogel.

If you were there, you'd know was conceived in conjunction with Li's forthcoming exhibition I Want to Love with No Fear, opening January 9, 2026 at Chapter NY and directly accessible via the Canal St E station.

“CJ” Craig Jun Li (*1998, Zhengzhou, China) lives and works in New York City.
